Dear Patron of the Arts,

Greetings from Mosaic Theatre in Plantation! Proud recipient of six 2009 Carbonell Awards including Best Production of the Year, Mosaic Theatre has established itself as "Broward County's Dramatically Dominant Theater Company" (Miami Herald).

Mosaic is dedicated to performing passionate and innovative stagings of contemporary plays starring local and national members of the Actors' Equity Association (same actors you'd see on Broadway!). Our Ninth Anniversary Season recently opened to critical acclaim with the Southeastern Premiere of Tom Stoppard's masterpiece "Rock 'N' Roll," immediately followed by the hilarious hit comedy "Why Torture is Wrong and the People Who Love Them" by celebrated author Christopher Durang.

We are especially looking forward to the Mosaic Theatre Gala & Auction 2010 - "Back to the 60s" to be held on Saturday, March 6th. It promises to be a spectacular evening with great food, live music, complimentary bar, and fabulous silent and live auction items, PLUS a performance of "Make Me A Song: The Music of William Finn," an uproarious and moving musical revue celebrating the works of the Tony Award-winning composer.

We know you will be proud to support one of "South Florida's greatest treasures." Please see the enclosed attachments for information on the incredible benefits of our sponsorship packages.

We greatly need and appreciate your help to continue producing Broadway quality theatre right here in your own backyard! In light of continuing national and local governmental cuts in arts funding, we are turning once again to the business sector for your aid in enriching the arts here in South Florida. If you value quality professional theater, please sponsor this event!

Thanks in advance for your support!

Warm regards,

Richard Jay Simon
